Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz (JGU) is one of the largest universities in Germany. Thanks to its location in the Rhine-Main science region, the university can unfold to its full potential and showcase its innovative power and dynamism. Its status as a comprehensive university allows for multidisciplinary learning and teaching and has great potential for internationally renowned, interdisciplinary research. Almost all of its institutes are located on a single campus close to the Mainz city center – creating a lively academic culture for researchers, teaching staff, and students from every continent.

The Faculty of Law, Management and Economics invites applications for the position of

University Professor of International Law and Public Law

beginning April 1st, 2024.

Salary grade W 3 LBesG | Civil servant (tenured)

Tasks and expectations:

We are looking for a personality with an internationally visible research profile in international law and research achievements in the field of German public law. With regard to teaching, participation in the area of specialization 'International public Law' and its further development is expected, as is the teaching of required public law subjects in the state examination degree program for Law. Applicants should have the ability to teach in English. Willingness to further develop the profile area is expected.

We require the candidate to be familiar with digital teaching and to be prepared to use innovative methods of teaching and learning. In addition, the candidate should be interested in contributing to the further internationalisation of the Faculty of Law, Management and Economics. We expect the candidate to engage in the academic self-administration.

Requirements:

- In addition to the general requirements according to public services law, applicants must meet the recruitment requirements stipulated in Section 49 of the Hochschulgesetz of Rhineland-Palatinate.
- In addition to the doctorate, proof of excellent academic achievements is required.

The state of Rhineland-Palatinate and JGU are committed to close personal mentoring of students and therefore expect teaching staff to have a strong presence at the university. A cooperative, team-oriented and proactive work attitude, strong communication skills, and the willingness to assume responsibility – including further professional development in accordance with JGU’s leadership guidelines – is also expected.

What we have to offer:

JGU firmly supports making family and career compatible and promotes its employees’ further professional development with an extensive human resources development offer.

JGU is diverse and welcomes qualified applications from people with varied backgrounds.

JGU aims to increase the number of women in research and teaching and therefore encourages female researchers to apply.

Candidates with severe disabilities and appropriate qualifications will be given priority.

Please submit your application, including CV, diplomas, lists of publications and previous teaching activity as well as recent teaching evaluations by October 15th, 2023 electronically as one PDF file to the
